

Houses/Apartments owned by Saint John of God Housing Association

If you choose to live in a Saint John of God Housing Association house, speak to your Support Worker.

Register on the council's housing list.

State that you want to be housed by Saint John of God.

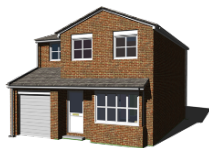

You will be interviewed by someone from the Housing Association.

The Housing Association will have to get Garda clearance for you.

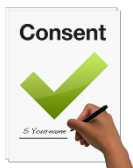

If you pass the interview, you will have to be approved by the Council.

It is your choice where you want to live in the community.

If you don't like the accommodation you have been offered, you can refuse it.

If you accept, your rent will be based either on your income or set at €74 per week.

You may have to pay a service charge depending on where you live.

The Housing Association has to register your tenancy with the Residential Tenancies Board (RTB).

The RTB protects your rights as a tenant.

You will receive a letter.

You have to keep within the terms of your Tenancy Agreement.

Maintenance of your home is monitored by your support worker.

You can apply for a grant to help you purchase furniture and white goods in your new home.

If you ever want to leave your home, you will have to give minimum notice to the Housing Association.

Always contact your Housing Officer if you have any queries.
